

Let the Sunshine in.

We starve, look at one another short of breath, walking proudly in our winter - coats, wearing smells from laboratories, facing a dying nation, of moving paper fantasy, listening for the new told lies, with supreme visions of lonely times

Some-where, inside something, there is a rush of greatness, who knows what stands in front of our lives; I fashion my future on films in space. Silence tells me secretly everything, everything. Singing, my space songs on a spider-web sitar,

Life is around you and is in you, Answer for Timothy leary deary
